ROOSEVELT'S REGRETS

Louisville, Ky., October 19, 1916.
President W. G. Frost,
Berea, Ky.

Dear President:—

I assume, of course, that you have been informed of the unfortunate error in signals, that resulted in Roosevelt's Special being hurried out of your station. Mr. Roosevelt himself, was gravely disappointed and I personally heard him make vigorous complaint immediately, to those in charge of the train. He said it was a magnificent crowd and he wanted to speak to it.

Mr. Petty was called out of the city last night and asked me to advise you that this Committee sincerely regrets the unfortunate accident that resulted in the disappointment of your people. He directed me also to say that he gratefully appreciates the active and enthusiastic interest that you took in preparation for the occasion, and hopes you will clearly understand that nobody in authority was in any way responsible for the accident.

Yours very truly,

J. H. Thomas

NEWS FROM THE BORDER

Word from Ft. Bliss, El Paso, Texas, reports that the Berea boys down there are becoming acclimated and are better satisfied than they were at first, though they all are wishing for the time when they may come home.

Paul Edwards has received another promotion, this time from principal musician to chief musician, which is the highest rank an army musician can hold. In four months he has been raised from sergeant.
It is a great record for a boy twenty years old to have made.

"Doc" Davis, a Berea College boy the last two years, is also a musician in a Pennsylvania band.

Dan Short, Brack Short and Ed Cox, all Berea boys, are also located at Ft. Bliss, but are with the Ohio troops, having enlisted in Dayton, O., while working there. Dan is an officer of some rank and all are making good soldiers.

Walter Anderson, also a Berea boy, is in one of the Kentucky regiments.

BETTER THAN THE THEATRE

Dr. Southwick to Give Shakespearian Reading, Wednesday Night, November 8th.

Who does not wish to enjoy Shakespeare? And how seldom do we have a chance except as we read Shakespeare by ourselves! Even if one could attend a theatre Shakespeare is seldom presented, and then we miss many of the best points for lack of an interpreter.

Berea has secured the best reader and interpreter of Shakespeare now in America to present the great play of Macbeth in the College Chapel, Monday night, November 8th. Let everybody read the play in advance, and look forward to this as the chief intellectual indulgence of the fall term.

Admission 25 cents, students 10 cents. Adv.

Changing Conditions Make Recording of Vital Statistics More Important

By CRESSY L. WILBUR, M. D.

Director of Vital Statistics, New York State Department of Health

The chief defects and therefore the resulting problems of federal registration of vital statistics are due to the nature of the development of the work in this country, the dependence of the general government upon the states for the adoption and enforcement of laws, and the lack of control of the means of registration. Hence the efforts of the bureau of the census, in co-operation with the state authorities, have been directed to the promotion of adequate legislation and the standardization of the records made thereunder.

The history of the registration of vital statistics in the United States has been that of a most valuable and necessary institution of modern society neglected amid more or less pioneer and primitive conditions.
There was little thought of making permanent records of individuals in the rapid march of civilization across the continent. There was comparatively little need, for many a citizen of the United States has been born and has died without once having been required during the course of a long life to produce documentary evidence depending on such records.
American life was purely individualistic.

We are changing all this—and we cannot contemplate all features of the change without a sigh of regret. As people come into closer contact in our crowded communities, vital records are of increasing importance to protect the rights and insure the privileges of the individual. Schools are overcrowded; child labor must be prevented; widows with minor children receive pensions from the state—perhaps old-age pensions are coming; in a multitude of ways the state is entering into the daily life of the people and requiring records of births and marriages and deaths for the interest of the individual.

TRI-STATE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

October 27, 28 and 29 are the dates of the Convention of the Tri-State Christian Endeavor, which includes all Endeavor societies in the mountain counties of Kentucky, Virginia, and Tennessee. Mr. Hudson is president. There will be an interesting program and interesting group of delegates to whom the Union Church Christian Endeavor will act as host. Prepare for the meeting. Every mountain society is expected to send delegates.
